ALFRED H. HOLDEN

7608 DOGWOOD ROAD, GERMANTOWN, TENNESSEE

October 12, 1960

Dr. James W. Silver
University of Mississippi

Dear Doctor Silver:

The thought occurred to me two or three times during September that I should ask you what progress was being made on The Confederate Soldier, but I decided each time that I would probably hear from you soon, so I am glad to have the letter Mr. Seale Johnson wrote you, with your notation thereon. I have made a copy of this to send my brother in Milwaukee, as he is also very much interested in this project, and I return Mr. Johnson's letter, thinking you might wish to have it for your file.

Of course I had hoped I would be seeing a copy of the book soon, but I'm glad to know that Mr. Johnson hasn't lost any enthusiasm about it, and that "its issuance you can depend on!" So, we'll all just have to be patient.

Thanking you, and hoping that you'll continue to keep me posted from time to time, I am

Sincerely,

Alfred H. Holden
